

The 'Hard Questions':

- (1) If abortion is outlawed, women will seek illegal abortions
- (2) If abortion is outlawed, women will die from illegal abortions
- (3) Outlawing abortion would be unfair to poor women
- (4) Abortion is justified in some instances
- (5) Abortion reduces child abuse
- (6) Abortion is needed to control over-population
- (7) We should not force our morality on others
- (8) There is no consensus on abortion; therefore, we shouldn't legislate against it
- (9) It's cruel and inhuman to force the victim of rape or incest to carry a child
- (10) Abortion is justified because of fetal abnormalities
- (11) Unless we can adopt all 'unwanted children' we should be against abortion
- (12) Since men don't get pregnant, it's only a woman's choice
- (13) 'I'm personally opposed to abortion', but each have their choice
- (14) No one knows when life begins
- (15) The unborn are not human until they feel pain
- (16) The unborn aren't human until viability
- (17) Roe vs Wade proves the Constitution supports abortion
- (18) We cannot force our morality on others

courtesy of: Scott Klusendorf, the Center for Bioethical Reform